Commissioner Smiley thanked Commissioner Golba’s daughter Nicole for the tie which he received as a gift over years ago.

Commissioner Wagner complemented the City staff's work on two different occasions happened in his community. He explained that there was a hazardous tree next to his nine-year-old neighbor. Commissioner Wagner and his community worked with city staff to trim portions of this cumbersome tree and he appreciates the city staff that showed up to cut the tree for his amazing customer service by doing his best to meet his neighbor's expectations. He also mentioned that portions of his community will be underground in the next 90 days or so and he was thoroughly impressed with the city staff for their ability to synthesize the project and worked with many agencies outside the city. Commissioner Wagner conveyed that he is proud of his tax dollars going to his city and the product we get out of that is worth a lot more than we pay them.

Commissioner Quiroz commented on the voluntary water restrictions and/or mandatory water restrictions and requested the City to give her some directions on how to go through the process in basing her decisions for approving projects.
